Significance of Śri Dwadasakashari Mantra and Havan

Maha Vishnu Dwadasakshari Mantra - A twelve lettered/syllable mantra, which addresses the Supreme Lord, Supreme Bramhan as Vasudeva. "Om Namō Bhagavate Vasudevaya" means "Om, I bow to Lord Vasudeva or Lord Krishna". This mantra is also known as a Mukti (liberation) mantra. This is the principal mantra of the Vedic scripture "Srimad Bhagavatam". This mantra can also be found in Vishnu Purana.

Havan: Havan (also known as homa) is a Sanskrit word (Sanskrit: हवन) which refers to any ritual in which - making offerings into a consecrated fire (Agni). The combination of the powerful energy of the Agni (fire element), and the chanted mantras create extremely auspicious and purifying vibrations that are beneficial to all who attend the havan/homa. Join us with your family and take part during Śri Venkateswara Abhishekam (Saturday ritual), and Dwadasakshari Havan, and obtain the blessing of Lord Vasudeva/Lord Krishna.

Pradosham: In the evening join us during pradosham abhishekam time, dedicated to Lord Shiva. When 13th Moon-day falls on Saturday it is called 'Shani Pradosham' and considered to be very auspicious and obtain the blessing of Lord Shiva.
