Sri Shani Jayanti is marked as birth anniversary of Lord Shani. Shani Jayanti falls on Amavasya Tithi during Vaishakha month. Lord Shani - Son of Surya and Chaya, is also known as 'Shanishwara' (The Supreme). In Sanskrit 'Shanishwara' comes from 'Shanishchara' which means 'slow mover'.

Lord Shani is the most sought out among Nava (nine) Graha or planets. Shani Jayanti coincides with Savitri Vrat which is also observed during Jyeshtha Amavasya. Prayer to Lord Shani dev is conducted on Jayanti event which is on May 25th.

This year at HTCC, to commemorate Lord Shani Jayanti, Shanishwara homam/ritual is scheduled on Saturday May 27th. Join us with family to take part in homam and seek the blessings of Lord Shani Dev.
