Sri Hanumān Jayanti - Hanumān Jayanti is celebrated to commemorate the birth of Lord Hanumān. In various regions of the country, Hanumān Jayanti is celebrated on different days. In some places it is observed on Chaitra Purnima.

In southern region it is celebrated on Vaiśākha Krishna Dashami, the 10th day of the waning moon in the month of Vaiśākha. In HTCC, Hanuman Jayanti is celebrated on Vaiśākha (May) Krishna Paksha Dashami.

The celebration starts in the morning with special abhisheka for the Deity of Hanumān. After the abhisheka, Hanumān is adorned in a special alankāra. A garland made of vada (naivedyam made of urad dhal) is also offered. Lord Hanumān, the dedicated disciple of Lord Rāma, is worshipped for his deep devotion.

Join us with family and friends and take part in the events and obtain Lord's blessings.
