Significance of Karthika Masa

Karthika Masam or Karthik month is the most auspicious month amongst all 12 Hindu calendar months. Pujas, rituals, other auspicious and prosperous celebrations during Karthik Month give great pleasure and happiness in life because this is the most favorite month for the Lord (s). Karthika Masam starts the day after Deepavali. The festival of lights starts from the new moon of the previous month (Deepavali Amavasya) and goes on to the full moon of Karthika Masam. In particular, Saturday is auspicious day of the week to worship Lord Venkateswara.

At the Pradosha time of the Saturday evenings, strings of 'Deepas' will be lit and is worshipped by saying: 'Lord Venkateswara accompanied by two consorts Sridevi and Bhodevi - We welcome You with Deepalankara Jyoti - The splendour of these Diyas, as You are the Symbol of Limitless Illumination'.

Join us on all the (4) Karthika Shanivar (Saturday), and participate in the Lord Venkateswara abhishekams in the mornings and significant ** Dēpālankarana seva ** in the evenings and obtain the blessings from Lord Venkateswara.
