Sri Kukke Subrahmanya Shashti

Subrahmanya Shashti is also known as Kukke Subrahmanya Shashti and occurs during lunar month Mārgashira. Kukke Subrahmanya Temple is situated on the bank of river Dhara (South India).

According to Hindu mythology, Lord Subrahmanya arrived to this place after destroying the demon rulers in a battle. It is said that the Lord washed his Shakti Ayudha in this holy river.

Lord Indra was so moved by his bravery that he prayed the Lord to marry his daughter Devasena. The marriage took place on the banks of Kumāra Dhara on 'Mārgashira Shudda Shashti'. Vāsuki, the chief of the nagas prayed to the Lord to remain with him forever at this place. It is said that the Lord has remained in his spiritual presence in this shrine along with his wife Devasena and Vāsuki.

On this sacred day, join us with family and participate in Shashti events and obtain the blessings of Lord Subrahmanya.
