Yajur Upākarma

Upākarma "Beginning" (Sanskrit: उपकर्म), also called Āvani Avittam (Tamil: ஆவணி அவிட்டம்) and Janivārada Huṅṅime (Kannada: ಜನಿವಾರದ ಹುಣ್ಣಿಮೆ), Gamma Purnima (Oriya: ଗମ୍ଭୀରୀ ପୂର୍ଣ୍ଣିମା), is a Vedic ritual conducted once a year during the Hindu calendrical month Śrāvana, when Brahmins ritually change their Upanayana thread accompanied by relevant rituals.

While removing the old thread, the mantra means -"I remove with respect, the old broken thread by wear and tear, may the new one bring on long life and Brahmana's brilliance."

When the new thread is worn, the mantra recited means "I put on the sacred thread which is highly pure, is inseparable from God, is capable of prolonging life and is the foremost in the accomplishment of a Brahmana. May such pure Yagnopavita bring strength and dignity."

Note: The 'sacred thread' for the ritual is provided by the temple at no cost; please check with priests. Take part in any of the (3) batches.

Join us with your family and take part in all the significant events, and obtain Lords blessings.
