Śri Narasimha Jayanti

Śri Narasimha Jayanti is an important festival among the Hindus and is celebrated during Vaisakha month. The fourth and the greatest incarnation of Śri Vishnu amongst his ten prime avatars is Śri Narasimha, who emerged out of a pillar as Man-Lion, i.e. Lion's head on Man's trunk. According to Vedic legend - Śri Narasimha devoured Demon-king Hiranyakashyapu (who was Master Prahalada's father). To mark the above incidence and to pay our respect, Śri Narasimha Jayanti is celebrated. Join us with your family and take part in the events, and obtain the blessing of Śri Narasimha.
