Significance of Karthika Somavar and Sri Siva

The month of Karthika is an auspicious month of the year for worshipping Sri Siva. In particular, Somavar (Monday) is auspicious day of the week to worship Sri Siva. Monday (s) during Karthik/Karthika/Karthigai masa/month in Hindu panchanga/calendar, is dedicated to Sri Siva.

Somavar (Monday) gets its name from one of thousand names of Sri Siva – Someshwara. The crescent moon (Soma) on the matted locks of Siva gives him the name Someshwara. It is believed that the moon observed Somavara Vratam to escape from the curse of Daksha and to get the blessings from Sri Siva and a spot in His matted locks. Join us on all the Karthika Somavar (s) and participate in the Sri Siva Abhishekams and obtain the blessings.

Masks/face coverings and safe distancing per CDC/WA Guidelines to be met, while in the temple
